About us

Atherton Godfrey is a leading firm of solicitors, specialising in commercial law and commercial and residential property, personal injury and medical negligence, family law and family mediation, wills and probate and employment law. The firm was established in 1979 by founding partners John Atherton and Charles Godfrey with just a handful of staff. Since then it has become one of Doncaster's largest law firms with 8 partners and over 100 staff.

We pride ourselves on always keeping clients well informed and up to date with proceedings at face to face meetings and via telephone, letter and email.

A number of our staff are members of specialist Law Society panels. In addition Atherton Godfrey is proud to hold the following kite marks:

- Lexcel
- APIL Accreditation
- Legal 500 Recommended

We are also on the Headway Personal Injury Solicitors List for 2012, the The Spinal Injuries Association Approved List of Personal Injury Solicitors and the Child Brain Injury Trust Legal Directory listing.

About the role

We are able to offer a 3 – 6 months of unique internship experience within our Litigation Department. You will be primarily dealing with personal injury and clinical negligence matters.

You will be engaged into various activities, which enable you not only to gain a valuable insight into the work of English solicitors, but also to develop skills essential for pursuing your legal career. Therefore, we will encourage you to take part in all stages of the litigation process, from seeing clients to drafting legal documents and attending trials.

Our Clients are mostly English nationals, but you will also be given an opportunity to interact with our Polish clientele.

The role is available immediately.

For more information about the role please contact Marta Kuliga: m.kuliga@athertongodfrey.co.uk

Requirements

- Good command of the English language, both spoken and written;
- Preferences are given to candidates with some legal background;
- You need to be prepared to undertake some preliminary reading into English Tort Law and to attend in-house training during the period of your internship;
- Excellent IT skills;
- The ability to produce and organise your own work;
- Eligibility to receive support for an unpaid internship lasting between 3-6 months.

If you meet the above requirements and are interested in this role, please send your CV and a covering letter to: d.parker@athertongodfrey.co.uk
