

The Vidal Sassoon International Center for the Study of Antisemitism

Call for Applications For a Felix Posen Doctoral Fellowship

is an interdisciplinary research center founded in 1982. The Center is dedicated to an independent, non-political approach to the accumulation and dissemination of knowledge necessary for understanding the phenomenon of antisemitism. The Center supports research on antisemitism through the ages, focusing on relations between Jews and non-Jews, particularly in situations of tensions and crisis.

The Center welcomes applications from doctoral candidates, working on their dissertation, for a Felix Posen Fellowship.

The fellowship is awarded for doctoral studies in a variety of disciplines such as history, religious studies, Arab and Muslim antisemitism, political science, sociology, psychology, economy, literature and folklore, and any other discipline which enhances our understanding of antisemitism as a phenomenon in the past and present.

The deadline for submitting applications is 30 November 2014.
